

Personnel Group To Map Activity

New officers and executive committee members of the Mt. Vernon Chapter, Society for Personnel Administration will meet at the Belle Haven Country Club today at 6 p.m. to outline plans for the chapter's third season.

Robert A. Hanson of Alexandria, deputy director, Grain Division, U. S. Department of Agriculture is the president for 1962-63 season. Other recently elected officers are James Masterson, special projects officer, U. S. Civil Service Commission, executive vice president; Mrs. Mary J. Child, personnel director, City of Alexandria, secretary; Mrs. Maxine Millard, assistant personnel officer, Civilian Personnel Office, Army General Staff, treasurer; Thomas Diggin, deputy personnel director, U. S. Army Signal Corps, vice president for special projects; and Frank E. Kich, personnel manager, Servonics, Inc., vice president for membership.

Newly elected members of the Executive Committee are Mrs. Townley Jennens, formerly with Civilian Personnel, Ft. Belvoir, and Jack Embrey, supervisory staffing and career planning officer, Office, Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel, Army. Hold-over members on the committee are Robert A. Stricklin, Central Intelligence Agency, and William C. Fitch, Executive Director, National Association of Retired Persons. Past President Robert D. McMarlin, U. S. Army Engineer School, Fort Belvoir will also serve on the executive committee.

The Mount Vernon S.P.A. Chapter was organized in 1960 to afford an opportunity for professional development to personnel officials living in the Northern Virginia area. Its membership totals almost 200, including personnel officials from city, state and Federal government agencies, local industrial concerns and educational institutions.